

Farmer photographs a batch of seeds
web or mobile app

Upload photo(s)

Backend stores the batch and starts processing

Detection model scans the image
finds every individual seed

Each detected seed is cropped out

Quality classifier grades every crop
good or bad, with a confidence score

Results are aggregated:
seed count, good-rate, per-type breakdown

Farmer sees the quality report
and can share or export it